MANDARIN CHINESE

—LEARNING THROUGH CONVERSATION

PREFACE

Mandarin Chinese—Learning Through Conversation is intended to be an intensive course book for foreigners who have just started to learn Chinese.

This book consists of 40 lessons and 8 reviews. The 40 lessons encompass nearly 30 communicative functions such as “Greeting” and “Making an Acquaintance”, about 800 new words and the fundamentals of Chinese grammar. Each lesson is divided into six parts: Sentences, Conversations, Substitution and Extension, New Words, Grammar, and Exercises.

This book lays emphasis on improving the ability of the learner to use Chinese for communication. It integrates the communicative function with the grammatical structure and presents the most essential and useful part of the language in the linguistic environments one is usually exposed to in daily life, so as to enable the learner to master about 300 basic conversational sentences fairly quickly, and on that basis, through the drills of “Substitution and Extension”, to acquire the ability to carry on simple conversations in Chinese. In this way, the book will also help lay a solid foundation for further study.

The exercises are varied and plentiful. The reviews give due attention to improving the conversational and narrative skills of the learner, as well as systematically summarizing the grammar points covered. The exercises in each lesson and the reviews may be used in totality or in part, according to actual circumstances.
