接大唐遺軌

- 1 Meimei and Dongdong went to Baiyun Mountain in Guangzhou. They joined a martial arts summer camp.
- 2 In the morning, they took the wrong bus. When they arrived at the destination, Mr. Wang and the other students had all left.
- 3 Meimei said: "It doesn't matter. I have the schedule. They will be at the Canton Tower at 12:00."
- 4 When they arrived at the Canton Tower, there was a stair climbing competition. The place was full of people.
- 5 "Mr. Wang, where are you?" They shouted, but no one answered.
- 6 Dongdong was very anxious. Meimei said: "Hurry up! They should be at the Chen Clan Academy at 2 pm."
- 7 At the Chen Clan Academy, there were people practicing tai chi. However, none of them was Mr. Wang.
- 8 At five o'clock, in Shamian, Dongdong shouted: "Mr. Wang, are you here?"
- 9 They sat next to the Pearl River while eating spring rolls and they didn't know where to go.
- 10 A group of children were practicing monkey-style boxing. Dongdong laughed and said it looked too easy.
- 11 A young man said: "Shall we spar? Monkey-style boxing?"
- 12 Dongdong couldn't beat him. The young man said: "You are Dongdong, aren't you? I am Mr. Wang from the martial arts camp."
- 13 It turned out that Meimei's schedule was for tomorrow. Today, the students were visiting the Pearl River.

The Chinese Library Series

The Chinese Library Series is a collection of graded readers for pupils studying Chinese. It aims to make the learning experience more enjoyable, with relevant vocabulary chosen from multiple exams, such as GCSE/IGCSE, IB, New YCT and New HSK. It consists of six levels, based on the pupils' language proficiency.

The contents of the series relate to modern teenage life, classical works, myths, legends, fables and so on, accompanied by delightful drawings and exercises, with a Chinese-English word list to facilitate learning.

The best way to learn Chinese language and culture is to read. This series will help pupils experience reading success in their early years of learning Chinese.
